

Andrew S. Begun

Andy Begun represents commercial real estate developers, owners, tenants, lenders and equity investors in a wide range of real estate transactions, including acquisitions and sales, leasing, project development, joint ventures, real estate secured financings and credit enhancements, loan workouts and debt restructuring, and the origination, servicing and defeasance of securitized real estate loans. Andy additionally specializes in the representation of construction and permanent lenders under Fannie Mae, Freddie Mac and similar conventional and multifamily affordable housing loan programs, including bond and low-income housing tax credit transactions.

Education

- The George Washington University Law School (J.D., 1997)
- University of California, Santa Barbara (B.A., 1992)

Memberships

- State Bar of California
- Ventura County Bar Association
- Los Angeles County Bar Association

Andrew S. Begun
Partner

805.991.7482

abegun@cbdlawyers.com